Article 1. Name

An international non-profit association is set up under the name The European Money Markets Institute, abbreviated to “EMMI” (hereinafter referred to as the “Association”).

The Association shall be governed by the provisions of the Belgian Code for Companies and Associations (the BCCA).

All legal instruments, invoices, advertising material, publications and other documents coming from the Association shall mention the name of the Association, immediately preceded or followed by the words “international non-profit association” (“association internationale sans but lucratif”) or by the initials “AISBL”, together with the address of the registered office of the Association, the enterprise number of the Association, when applicable, the email address and website of the Association.

Article 2. Registered office

The registered office of the Association is established in the Brussels Region, and currently shall be at 1000 Brussels, Avenue des Arts 56.

The registered office may be transferred within Belgium by a simple decision of the Board of Directors, subject to compliance with the applicable language legislation, published in the month of the date of transfer in the Annexes to the Belgian Official Gazette (“Annexes du Moniteur Belge”).

Article 3. Purpose

The Association shall be non-profit making. Its international and European purpose shall be to support the smooth functioning and to facilitate the integration of European money markets and related financial markets.

To that end, the Association shall have the tasks of:

a) providing the administration of benchmarks;

b) supporting initiatives fostering the integration of the European financial markets such as but not limited to the improvement of their liquidity, safety and transparency;

c) developing and supporting activities related to the money and interbank markets.

Article 4. Duration

The Association shall be constituted for an indefinite duration and may be dissolved at any time, in accordance with Article 36 of these Articles of Association.
Title II. Members of the Association

Article 5. Members
The Association shall be composed of two categories of Members: full Members and associate Members.

National banking associations in the European Union Member States which have legal personality, or natural persons who have the authority to represent the Member associations without their own legal personality, may be full Members.

National banking associations in the European Free Trade Area Member States and any natural or legal person who is (i) representative of other particular sectors of the money and interbank markets, or (ii) capable of usefully contributing to the accomplishment of the Association's objectives may be an associate Member.

The admission of new Members shall be performed in accordance with the aforementioned conditions to be a full or associate Member of the Association. It shall be for the Board of Directors to determine, subject to the General Assembly's final decision, which organisations shall be admitted as full or associate Members.

Article 6. Candidature
The candidature of any person or entity desiring to become a full or associate Member shall be addressed to the Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”) of the Association, who shall submit it to the Board of Directors at its next meeting, or directly to the Board of Directors.

The candidature shall be accepted or rejected by a resolution passed by a majority of two-thirds of the votes, subject to ratification by the General Assembly deliberating in accordance with Article 12 of these Articles of Association.

Article 7. Resignation
All Members shall have the right to resign. They must announce their intention to do so six (6) months in advance by letter addressed to the CEO and must pay any outstanding contributions, if applicable, before the end of that period.

Article 8. Exclusion
The General Assembly, deliberating in accordance with Article 13 (b) of these Articles of Association, may exclude any Member that has infringed the provisions of these Articles of Association or the relevant Policies of the Association adopted by the General Assembly in accordance with Article 35 of these Articles of Association, after having heard the said Member’s defense.

If there is reason to believe that a Member should be excluded, the Chairperson of the General Assembly must convene a General Assembly meeting to consider the question of exclusion. The Member concerned shall be given written notice not less than two (2) weeks before this meeting, specifying the complaints brought against it as well as the day, place, and time of the meeting at which the Member will be allowed to present evidence in defense of the complaint brought against it.

If the General Assembly, after having heard the Member’s defense, finds that there are sufficient reasons for exclusion, it shall pronounce the exclusion of the Member concerned. The Member shall be given notice by the CEO of the findings of the General Assembly.

The exclusion becomes effective on the day the General Assembly’s decision is notified to the Member concerned.

Article 9. Absence of claims

Any Member who ceases to belong to the Association because of resignation or exclusion or for any other reason shall have no claim on its capital. Such a Member shall be unable to claim or require a statement or submission of accounts, or an inventory, or the placing of official seals on the Association’s assets.

Title III. General assembly

Article 11. Meetings of the Assembly

The General Assembly must meet at least once a year, at the place, date and time indicated in the convening notice.
The General Assembly may meet extraordinarily whenever this is in the Association's interest. Moreover, the statutory auditor(s) may, as the case may be, convene the General Assembly. The statutory auditor(s) must convene the General Assembly if one fifth of the full Members of the Association so require.

A convening notice must be sent to the full and associate Members by letter or e-mail or any other written means. The notice must contain the indication of the date, place and agenda of the meeting of the General Assembly. However, additional items may be added to the agenda during the meeting as long as:

a) They do not relate to the exclusion of a Member, the appointment, revocation or termination of duties of a member of the Board of Directors or any person authorised to represent the Association, the amendment of the Articles of Association, the approval of the annual accounts or the dissolution of the Association;

b) The General Assembly decides with simple majority to add these additional items to the agenda;

An amendment can only be adopted by a majority of two-thirds of the votes.

d) The General Assembly cannot validly deliberate on a possible amendment to any Code of Conduct, at the request of the EURIBOR/EONIA Oversight Committee in charge, unless a majority of the full Members are present or represented at the Assembly. f) If the Chairperson authorises it, any resolution in writing resulting from a written procedure, shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a General Assembly meeting, duly convened and constituted.

If a majority of the full Members is not present or represented at the first meeting, a second meeting may be convoked which may deliberate whatever the number of full Members present or represented. At that second meeting, any decision must also be adopted by a majority of two-thirds of the votes.

Article 14. Minutes

Unless it has been decided otherwise by all of the members of the Board of Directors, the notice shall be given at least seven (7) days before the meeting.

The Board of Directors is also entitled to take decisions outside meetings, including during telephone conferences, videoconferences or through any other equivalent means. These decisions are subject to the same attendance and voting rules as those prescribed for meetings.

Any member of the Board of Directors who is prevented from attending a Board meeting may arrange to be represented by a colleague on the Board of Directors, to whom he shall give a written proxy, by fax or e-mail. A member of the Board of Directors may represent several of his/her colleagues and shall possess, leaving aside his/her own vote, as many votes as he has mandates. Each member of the Board of Directors shall however not have more than two proxies.
